I am Looking For: any information on the MC COLLOUGH family of Pennsylvania. If you have any information on Wm. McCollough (b.1828) his wife Elizabeth (b.1828) or any of their children - Mary A. (b. 1849), Sarah J (b.1855) Celia P (b. 21 May 1857), Charles (b.1861) Eddie (b.1870) or John (b.1865). I know they were from Clarion County, Pennsylvania and that Celia McCullough married C.A. Johnson.

Thanks,

I am Looking For: Milas John McCullough, born about 1829 in NC or SC. Married 18 Aug. 1852 in Mecklenburg County, NC, Ann Rebecca Elms. Family legend says that he was a prisoner during the War Between the States and that he did not return from the war; however, inquiry to the National Archives was returned with the "not found" box checked. I inquired for "Milas John McCullough" of NC or GA. He is not listed in the compiled list of Confederate soldiers either.

My name is Earl McCullough. I live in western New York. Much of my family also lives here, beginning with my Grandma, Dorothy McCullough, her 7 children (5 in the area, two in Florida) and all the grandchildren and great-grandchildren. If you care to know more, please email me back and I can give you more specifics. I would however like to get ahold of some more information on the McCullough name to show my grandmother.

Any history you can give me, and/or other crests or coat of arms, would be appreciated.

Thank you.

My particular line is John McCullough, b6-1755 Lancaster Co. Pa. His is probable his father was John McCullough also. John McCullough was in the military during the Revolutionary War. I have his pension records. He possibly married in North Carolina. His children are listed as Sarah..Mary...Elizabeth.....Rebecca...Robert...Jonathon...Margaret....William..... I am descended from Jonathon....Several of the above migrated to Southern Indiana. Jonathon , Robert, William were living in Greene County and Owen County Indiana. The father, John was buried in Owen County, Indiana. Places they have lived were Pa., Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Pulaski County Kentucky, and finally Indiana. Jonathon and William were in the War of 1812.

If you think you might be researching this line please let me know.

I'm trying to find my gggrandmother's family. She was Mary Pattie McCullough/McCulloch (and other ways) who m James Sutherlin in Pittsylvania Co Va in about 1800. I'm sure she had some connection with a Samuel McCulloch whose name was among the witnesses in the litigation that followed James' death in 1812. (I also found that he deserted the army about that time and wondered if it had to do with his daughter's being left a widow with two small children? My imagination, of course; no evidence.) I'd appreciate hearing from you if you have informaiton on this family or any other information that might give me a clue so that I can find them.

Does anyone have anything on them? Thank you, Jean.

I am Looking For: family of origin of Jane and Mary Ann B. McCulloch/McCullough-sisters b. 1814/1815 and 1826 in S.C. Their mother had been born in S.C.; ;their father, in "Ireland (At Sea)". Both girls named their first daughter Margaret. Mary Ann named hers Margaret Isabelle, her second son Charles McKelvey, and her fourth son Leander Joseph. Jane married (1) John Edmiston ca. 1839 in Randolph Co., IL and (2) Samuel Little, b. S.C. m. in Randolph Co., IL, migrated w/ daughter Margaret married to James Kealy to Dunlap, KS, where she died is disputed. Mary Ann married in 1849 Blair Strahan in Randolph Co., IL and died there in 1883. In a nearby cemetery is buried a William B. McCullough (Hopewell in Perry Co) who wife Isabella was born in S.C. and whose son Leander was born in Gibson Co., IN. Leander was killed in the Civile War. I strongly suspect that William B. b. 1803 was related to Mary Ann B. and Jane. How many Margaret B. McCulloughs in South Carolina could have given birth to these girls between 1814 and 1826?

Help, this blank wall has gone on for too long (27 years).

I am looking for McCulloughs of African-American descent who lived in Florence, South Carolina in the early 1900s. If there any relatives still in the South Carolina area, they probably have fair to caramel complexions, freckles, and either wavy or soft, curly hair. This particular family may have attended the Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Florence (or Chester - I am not sure). Also, family members (Randolph, I believe) moved to Bessemer (Birmingham), Alabama. Any information anyone might have would be greatly appreciated.

Looking for My Uncle John McCullough.

My Great-Grandfather immigrated from Ireland in the mid 1800's. Became a U.S. citizen on September 7, 1868 in St. Louis, MO. My Uncle John is my father's half brother. He served in WWII and fought in Africa. He was also awarded the Silver Star. He married and moved to OH after WWII and the family has lost track of him. He would probably be in his late 70's by now. My father, his half brother, Lawrence J. McCullough, would be grateful for any info anyone might have as to the whereabouts of my Uncle John. Thank you. Anyone have any information?

Looking for Information on Archibald McCullough who emigrated from County Derry, Ireland in 1740 to Newcastle County, Delaware. I have a book prepared in the 1950's which traces the Anderson, McCullough and McCune families, which originally settled in Franklin County, PA, from the 1740's to the 1950's.

I would be happy to copy any sections that would be helpful.

Thanks,
